Okay. It's here. Midnight 24. 7. 2008 GMT +1 and as promised, the winners will be shortly announced.

Let's start though with a little recapitulation. I've received 12 emails where 9 of them contained correct answers. The correct answers to questions were:

- 1, We were 2. Me and Lukas Medek for this game. Although we got a couple of actors for voices (especially great Klemens Koehring), they didn't participate in the game creation.
- 2, The factory is called Sector Omega.
- 3, We've started with Ghost in the Sheet by the end of August 2006. As a trivia, the game was ready somewhere in april 2007 and the rest was all the stuff around - publisher contracts, polishing, manual, box art etc. We've translated Ghost so far into 8 languages so there was a lot of work afterwards.
- 4, Klemens Koehring was the great actor behind the Ghost's sarcastic voice. It was a spot on for us!
- 5, Our next game will be called J.U.L.I.A.

In the contest rules I've stated only 5 people will be given the opportunity to get the downloadable version of Ghost in the Sheet. However, because GameBoomers are the most supportive community for us hard working indie developers out there, I've decided to provide the game to all who correctly responded! In addition all who tried (even incorrectly), will get as a bonus two musical pieces from our upcoming game.

Those who got the prior questions right will be announced, let's say: 3 ... 2 ... 1 ... NOW!

Consolation prize flies to croaker and JudyinCT (thought we were three)

Leeda915 (didn't know about the origins of GitS production)

Thanks everybody who participated for your detective work and I hope you did get as much fun as I did by reading your answers. You'll find other details in your emails. In case you don't receive your emails in two hours from now, please send me an email and I'll paste the same into your PM here.

👉 And off I go... 👈
